Home button should be in highlighted state.

The subject area links should be text, not graphics.

Home page primary content currently set to be photo of and short message from the Governor. Copy to be authored by NGE.

Per Nancy, Elisabeth and John, there will be no hyperlinks included as part of this attribution.

Aside from [Feature] and [Article Title] portions of screen, screen should be static coded content.

Publishing Tool
Feature selection function of Publishing Tool will need to support this functionality or automatic generation of this information will need to be built into the functionality of the Public Face application.

[Feature] is intended to be editorial copy explaining and linking to 6.0 Features. The title and copy will be written by NGE and entered as part of the selection process for 6.0 Features, then pulled automatically and placed in this box.

Method

Publishing Tool
Certain articles will need to be marked for exclusion from this process as inappropriate (e.g. articles dealing with sensitive topics).

Articles will be selected at random from the database of all articles and "featured" on the home page. This should expose a large number of articles over time to the users. Should pull article title and first few lines for inclusion in featured article box.

Link will be to article in its primary location within the subject matter hierarchy.
